Regarding certain media reports

Tokyo, December 4, 2015 - Today there were media reports concerning Fujitsu's PC business. These reports were not based on any official announcement made by Fujitsu. On October 29, 2015, Fujitsu announced its intent to split off its PC business. Fujitsu is considering various possibilities toward future growth of the PC business following the split. However, a decision has not yet been made. Fujitsu will promptly announce matters that require disclosure as they arise.
