Principle 1-4: Cross-Shareholdings

1. Policy on Cross-Shareholdings

The Company holds shares that it has determined will lead to enhancement of the Company’s corporate value after verifying the medium- to long-term economic rationality based on maintaining and strengthening ongoing and stable business relationships with clients, suppliers, and other business partners as a fundamental principle. Each year, the Board of Directors verifies the effects of these holdings from the perspectives of their rationality and enhancement of corporate value based on comparisons of capital costs and medium- to long-term risks and returns for each holding, and in cases where a determination is made that continued holding of a particular stock is not suitable, the Company sells the stock while appropriately monitoring market trends.

2. Standards on the Exercise of Voting Rights

With regard to the exercise of voting rights regarding shares that it holds, the Company makes determinations whether to vote for or against each resolution from the perspective of whether the vote will contribute to raising the corporate value of the issuing company and the Company. In cases of resolutions for the election of officers, for appropriation of surplus, or that will have a substantial impact on shareholder value in particular, the Company exercises its voting rights in accordance with the Standards on the Exercise of Voting Rights.

Principle 1-7: Procedures and Frameworks Regarding Transactions with Interested Parties

To ensure that the common interests of the Company and its shareholders are not damaged by transactions with interested parties, such transactions require the approval of the Board of Directors under laws and regulations as well as internal rules and the results of such transactions must be reported to the Board of Directors.

Principle 2-6: Function as a Corporate Pension Asset Owner

The Company has a defined benefit pension system intended to stably build employee assets. The Pension Fund Committee includes human resources with appropriate qualifications such as the heads of the accounting department and labor department as well as labor union executives as representatives of the beneficiaries. To supplement and enhance the degree of specialization as a corporate pension fund, investment consultants are hired as outside experts, and comprehensive monitoring of investment results and policies of asset managers, investment structures, investment processes, and so on is conducted at the pension fund asset investment performance report meetings held each quarter. #### 2. Basic Views and Guidelines on Corporate Governance Based on Each of the Principles of the Code

The Company's basic policy regarding corporate governance is set forth in this report under "1. Basic Views" in "Basic Views on Corporate Governance, Capital Structure, Corporate Profile and Other Basic Information."

3. Board Policies and Procedures for Determining the Remuneration of the Senior Management and Directors

Director and corporate officer remuneration comprises base remuneration paid in cash, bonuses linked to the degree of achievement of the Company's performance over the course of a single year and other factors, and performance-linked, stock-based remuneration (excluding outside directors and non-resident directors in Japan) that is determined according to rank and the degree of achievement of performance targets set forth in the medium-term management plan and so on. This structure is intended to raise awareness regarding the contribution to improving corporate performance and maximizing corporate value over the medium- to long-term and is based on a fundamental policy of directors and corporate officers sharing interests with shareholders through ownership of Company shares.

The Remuneration Committee, which is made up primarily of independent outside directors, discusses director remuneration policies and procedures, the appropriateness of systems, and the appropriateness of proposed remuneration for each director and conveys its opinions on the results of its deliberations to the Board of Directors. This serves to ensure the transparency and fairness of decisions regarding director remuneration by the Remuneration Committee and Board of Directors.

4. Board Policies and Procedures in the appointment and dismissal of the senior management and the nomination of Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board member candidates

The Nomination Committee made up primarily of independent outside directors was established as an advisory body to the Board of Directors regarding the nomination of director candidates. To ensure reasonableness and transparency, the Board of Directors adopts resolutions on nominations following deliberations by the Nomination Committee for submission to the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Nominations of Audit & Supervisory Board members are approved by the Audit & Supervisory Board following deliberations by the Nomination Committee and submitted to the General Meeting of Shareholders.

The Company believes that establishing a Board of Directors with diverse human resources who have different backgrounds, such as differing specialized knowledge and experience, is important for the Company's sustainable growth and raising corporate value of the medium to long term. The Nomination Committee deliberates on individuals who possess extensive experience, high levels of knowledge, and a high degree of specialization and provide diversity in terms of gender, nationality, and other attributes, and nomination of director candidates is made by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Senior management can be dismissed in cases of improper conduct or serious violation of laws and regulations or the Articles of Incorporation in the course of performing duties or in the case where a determination is otherwise made that it would be unfeasible for the relevant individual to properly perform his or her duties. Following deliberation by the Nomination Committee, dismissal of a senior manager is decided by resolution of the Board of Directors.

2. Other Matters Concerning to Corporate Governance System

To manage the risks associated with our business, the directors have established Risk Management Rules, work to prevent the occurrence of loss by periodically assessing risks that are present under normal circumstances, and monitor the implementation status of response plans. In the case where a risk occurs, a companywide organization is established and systems are created to resolve the situation.

In principle, internal information is disclosed promptly after the occurrence of a risk. A representative director makes a determination concerning the timing and method of disclosure and disclosure is performed by a representative director or the officer responsible for general affairs appointed by the representative director in charge of general affairs. In cases where other officers or employees make announcements, they are entrusted to do so in advance by the representative director and the officer responsible for general affairs.
