4. Supplementary explanation

The criteria for determining the independence of independent officers stipulated by the Company are as follows.

1. The individual may not be an Executive Director, Operating Officer, Executive Officer or employee ( "business operator" ) of the Company or its affiliates (the "Company Group" ) and may not have been a business operator of the Company Group for ten years prior to being appointed.
2. The individual may not be a major vendor of the Company (*1) or a business operator thereof, and may not have been a business operator of the same for three years prior.
3. The individual may not be a major client of the Company (*2) or a business operator thereof, and may not have been a business operator of the same for three years prior.
4. The individual may not be a major shareholder (an individual or entity which owns 10% or more of the total voting rights of the Company, hereafter the same) or a business operator thereof.
5. The individual may not be a business operator of an entity for which the Company is a major shareholder.
6. The individual may not be receiving substantial donations (*3) from the Company or be a business operator for an entity receiving such donations.
7. In addition to remuneration as an officer, the individual may not receive substantial remuneration (*4) from the Company as a consultant, an accounting specialist such as a Certified Public Accountant, etc. or as a legal specialist such as an attorney, etc. (if the entity receiving the fees concerned is a corporation or a limited liability company, etc., any individual belonging to such an organization). The individual also may not be the accounting auditor of the Company Group.
8. If a business operator of the Company is an outside officer of another company, the individual may not be a business operator at the company concerned, the parent company or subsidiary of the company concerned.
9. The individual may not be a close relative (spouse or a relation in the second degree) of persons listed below:
  - (1) Persons who are currently or have been a Director, Audit & Supervisory Board Member, Executive Officer or a key employee with an equivalent position ( "important executive" ) for the Company Group within the past three years.
  - (2) Of the persons in 2-6 above, those who are important executives.
  - (3) Of the persons listed in 7 above, those who have professional licenses such as Certified Public Accountants, attorneys, etc.
10. In addition to 1-9 above, individuals must not have issues that could cause constant and real conflicts of interest against the Company' s general shareholders.

*1. Payment amount to vendor accounts for 2% of consolidated sales or more

*2. Received amount from client accounts for 2% of the Company Group' s consolidated sales or more, or the loan balance outstanding is 2% of the Company Group' s consolidated gross assets or more

*3. More than 10 million yen on average over the past three years

*4. The larger of more than 10 million yen on average over the past three years or an amount equivalent to 2% of total sales (total revenues) of the organization to which payment is made (three-year average)

Even if the individual does not satisfy one of the criteria listed above in 1-10, if the individual otherwise qualifies as an independent officer, he/she may still become an independent officer of the Company by providing an explanation or disclosing the reasons for such qualification.

The above criteria are also described in the "Corporate Governance Report" submitted to the stock exchanges.

The Corporate Governance Report is provided at the Company' s website (<http://www.osakagas.co.jp/company/ir/index.html>).
