Executive summary

FY2020/21 1Q highlights

- Income before income taxes: Y181.8bn; Net income¹: Y142.5bn; ROE²: 21.0%; EPS³: Y45.65
 - Income before income taxes and net income at second highest level since reporting under US GAAP started in year ended March 2002
 - ✓ Three segment income before income taxes increased significantly as the market normalized from March downturn and client activity picked up due to portfolio rebalancing, underpinning a record revenue quarter for Wholesale⁴
 - ✓ Segment Other booked a gain of Y71.1bn related to approval to convert rights in Nihonbashi redevelopment project
 - International income before income taxes hit a record⁵ Y64.2bn as efforts to realign our business portfolio and focus on areas of competitive strength delivered results; Effective tax rate dropped to 21%

- Three segment income before income taxes of Y122.1bn (6.2x QoQ)

Retail

- Solid results despite restrictions on sales activities; Robust sales of secondary stocks throughout the quarter, but slower sales of discretionary investments and insurance products

Asset Management

- Improvement in American Century Investments (ACI) related gain/loss led to marked improvement in Asset Management performance QoQ
- Booked sixteenth straight quarter of inflows; Quarterly average AuM largely unchanged QoQ, while quarter-end AuM grew to Y54.5trn partly lifted by market factors

Wholesale

- Normalization from March market downturn, uptick in client activity on portfolio rebalancing and elevated volatility drove strong growth in Fixed Income and Americas and AEJ Equities revenues
- Investment Banking performance improved from last quarter, but Japan ECM, cross-border M&A and ALF had a slow quarter
